

Point Park Playhouse feedback summary

As of 4/19/19

What are your chief concerns about this site?⁵ responses

- that it will become just another big glass cube, because that's where the money is
- Closing of Craft Ave. If necessary, we need to know in advance and for how long.
- The loss of a building that has at times served the community with various art or even showing inexpensive movies. And of course, what will replace it.
- None
- How future owners will use the site. Point Park said they "wanted" the new use to be a good fit for the neighborhood, but they had no mechanism to ensure that happened nor were able to share what qualities they would be looking for in potential buyers.

How well did you feel Point Park explained...

How well did you feel Point Park University addressed your concerns with:

